

Maura Sirianni

c/o Napoli Management Group
8844 West Olympic Boulevard, Suite 100
Beverly Hills, California 90211
310.385.8222

EDUCATION

Edinboro University of Pennsylvania

Edinboro, Pennsylvania
Bachelor of Arts in Broadcast Journalism
Minor in Psychology

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Reporter/MMJ

December 2017 to Present

WKRN-TV, Nashville, Tennessee

High energy reporter who excels at live, breaking newscasts. Focuses on compelling, original content and utilizing social media. Won first place at the Tennessee AP Awards in the Spot News category for live, exclusive coverage of the October 2018 capture of a wanted double murder suspect.

Reporter

December 2015 to November 2017

WDRB-TV, Louisville, Kentucky

Morning reporter covering breaking news and delivering compelling live reports. Work exclusively in the field to inform viewers of breaking news updates while turning packages and working sources to produce exclusive content. Cover a wide variety of topics including crime, courts, education and politics. Responsible for posting stories to station website and interacting with viewers on various social media platforms, including Twitter and Facebook.

MMJ/Reporter

November 2013 to November 2015

WICU/WSEE-TV, Erie, Pennsylvania

Engaged in all phases of news gathering and story development. Was responsible for enterprising stories, writing, shooting and editing. Consistently performed solo live shots from the field and developed and pitched unique story ideas.

Anchor/Producer

September 2010 to May 2013

Edinboro Television, Edinboro, Pennsylvania

Anchored and produced Edinboro News Now. Wrote and stacked newscasts, conducted interviews in the field, edited packages and anchored newscasts.

SKILLS

Proficient in software including ENPS, iNews, Adobe Premiere Pro, Photoshop CS6, Avid and Newsource
Proficient with cameras including Panasonic P2, Sony XDCAM, GoPro Live Gear and LiveU software

Represented by Mike Bothwell 310.492.4485 / mbothwell@tvtalent.com