

Ali Warshavsky

c/o Napoli Management Group
8844 West Olympic Boulevard, Suite 100
Beverly Hills, California 90211
310.385.8222

EDUCATION

Quinnipiac University

Hamden, Connecticut
Bachelor of Arts, Broadcast Journalism
Minor in Science and Values

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Traffic Anchor

August 2017 to Present

WRNN-TV, New York, New York

Provide traffic updates for New Jersey, Hudson Valley, and Long Island stations. Update social media platforms with breaking traffic news updates.

Traffic Anchor/News Reporter/Anchor

June 2016 to August 2017

WNCN-TV, Raleigh, North Carolina

Presented traffic updates and news updates throughout weekday morning newscasts. Reported on breaking news and enterprised stories throughout the Triangle area. Updated social media platforms with traffic and breaking news information. Filled-in as anchor.

Traffic Anchor/News Reporter/Anchor

March 2014 to May 2016

News 12 Connecticut, Norwalk, Connecticut

Updated commuters with traffic updates every ten minutes throughout morning newscasts. Reported on issues affecting Southwestern Connecticut, covered breaking news, and enterprised story ideas. Filled-in as anchor. Hosted a weekly cooking segment called "Quick Tips".

Anchor/Reporter/Producer

November 2012 to March 2014

WICZ-TV, Binghamton, New York

Co-produced and anchored 6pm and 10pm weeknight newscasts. Reported on issues and events in greater Binghamton area and North Pennsylvania. Developed stories, reported, shot and edited packages.

Video Journalist

June 2011 to November 2012

ItsRelevant.com, Stamford, Connecticut

Developed stories, reported, shot, wrote, and edited footage for hyperlocal news website.

Freelance Associate Producer

December 2010 to June 2011

News 12, Connecticut, Norwalk, Connecticut

Wrote stories from the AP wire and press releases for nightly newscast. Wrote voice-overs and used ENPS.

Represented by Mike Bothwell 310.492.4485 / mbothwell@tvtalent.com